

It's hard to learn when you're hungry.

More than 50,000 Maine children lack reliable access to healthy food.

Our take-home food programs ensure that hungry children and their families have the nourishing foods we all need to learn, grow and thrive.

The Locker Project works with schools, agencies, community partners, and local businesses to promote nutrition security across Greater Portland.

Together, we're #feedingthefuture.

www.mainelockerproject.org/donate